THESE are some photos of Phillip O'Halloran's Mum and Dad with dad's Indian Scout. Dad bought it in 1947 after selling his 1937 2 3/4 BSA. It had been an RAAF bike during the war and he bought it about third hand in 1947. It was in army camouflage colours when he bought it, so he stripped it down and painted it dark blue and cream with new transfers. They were married in October, 1948 and Dad sold it in 1949 after nearly riding underneath a semi-trailer. They both still live in Collingwood Road where they have been since retiring from the farm in 1980. Currently they are in Carnarvon having towed the van up, leaving Albany on the Sunday of the recent big storm! Not bad for an 89 year old!
